ROCHEBRUNE

Terrasse du Mas 04 50 21 45 91

In the main block, top of Chamois lift/shoebox/Caboche.. Gets very busy in peak periods. Best dishes – Soup.,Salads, Carbonara. Nice sun terrace PG C

Caboche 04 50 21 55 19 Behind children's ski school.. Slightly more up market than Terrasse du Mas. Good salads. Chicken nuggets with chips for children. PG C

Matou 04 50 58 97 77 Bottom of Petit Rochebrune. Never eaten there but good for hot chocolate. Any comments on food welcome.

La Staduel. At the bottom of the second chair on the Grands Champs. Reasonably priced food

Supermegeve 04 50 21 22 05 This has been rebuilt at the top of the Rochebrune cable car with good views.. We are told the food is good. Barbecue outside in good weather. PG B

Chalet Forestiere 04 50 21 12 95 On the way to Alpette. Nice ambiance. Plat du jour usually good, and usually best bet. Still the same trough for hand washing in the loos. PG B

Alpette 04 50 21 03 69 Open fire – expensive. Good for an expensive blow out. Very good patisserie. Very cosy inside for hot drink if very cold. PG A

Babotch 04 50 91 93 96 Above Petite Fontaines chair. Access from Alpette via Mouillettes or track through trees from Super Megeve., Nice ambiance. PG B

La Petite Fontaine Snack bar just above the Petit Fontaine chair. Probably the cheapest place on the mountain for food and drinks. Easiest access as Babotch. PG D

Javen D'En Haut 04 50 91 92 66 Bottom of Petit Fontaine chair. Friendly service .Limited room inside. Best dish – Pella.. Very good omelettes. Good café au lait. Also have kiosk with deckchairs where you can get drinks and sandwiches cheaply in good weather. PG C

Sur des Pres 04 50 93 92 16 Set menu. Nice fire and views but you have to walk up hill to regain the piste. We have never eaten there so would welcome views.PG A

Chalet Du Radaz 04 50 58 94 44 On way back from Cote 2000 The food is excellent - Tartiflette, Spaghetti bolognaise Lasagne and Diots (Savoyarde sausages cooked in the oven) are all very good. You need to get there early as it fills up quickly. Late season the deck is a suntrap. If the weather is good they close the inside and food is served on the sundeck. You can get a sandwich or soup and a drink from a hatch which is cheaper. They usually have vin chaud on the go. Good omelettes for children. PG C

Auberge Cote 2000 04 50 21 31 84 In the car park Expensive . We think it may be under new management, seemed friendlier. Also own Ideal Restaurant and Club House on Mont D'Arbois. PG A

Altiport 04 50 21 03 53 You can ski to this, through the gap in the trees from the bottom of Cote 2000, but it's a walk back, or get the bus. Good food and friendly. Reasonable prices. Plat du jour is usually excellent.

Le Pre-Rosset

Top of the Lanchettes lift. Expensive and pretentious PG A

MONT D'ARBOIS/St Nicholas

Igloo 04 50 93 05 84 Top of the bubble. Large self-service . No ambiance. but lovely views of Mont Blanc if you can get a window seat. Reasonably priced food but drinks are expensive, and they charge €1 to use the loo – free at the lift station 20 metres away. PG B
There is also a waiter service restaurant – food is good but very expensive. PG A

Ideal 1850 04 50 21 31 26 Smart, very expensive but with excellent food (we are told ). Book at weekends. Great sun terrace. PG A

Mandarines 04 50 21 31 27 Open fire – expensive, nice ambiance. Mixed reports of the food and probably depends on who is cooking. Snow mobile taxi from top. Lovely man takes your skis and looks after them. PG B

Le Rosay by Mont Joux chair. Self- service. Basic food – soup is the best dish and their home made bread. Avoid the overcooked chicken. There is also a snack kiosk in peak season, charge € 0.50 to use the loos! PG C

L'Espace de Mont Joux 04 50 58 99 67 Top of the Mont Joux chair. Good food, reasonably priced and good service. Fantastic views.. Also have drink and snack kiosk .PG C

La Raviere 04 50 93 15 71 on the way to Communailles – in the trees, tricky to find, icy difficult track out. 2 or 3 course meal – you can't have one course only. Very good set menu and excellent value. The place to go when you want a long lunch and ski home gently afterwards. Booking in advance essential, no credit cards accepted. PG A

La Terrasse de Freddy 06 83 51 31 27 Top of Mont Joux. Soup, Hot drinks and snacks. Can take a picnic and just buy a drink. PG D

L'Alpage 04 50 93 12 76 bottom of Communailles. Excellent food. Some of the starters are a meal in themselves. Only one loo. PG C

Le Relais des Communailles 04 50 93 17 48 Suntrap balcony with splendid views of Mont Blanc. Good food, but sometimes slow service PG B

Le Gouet. 04 50 93 20 97 Very friendly – been run by the same family for ever. Sons-in-law gave the chocolate mousse 8 1/2 out of ten which would have been higher if there had not been hundreds and thousands on the top. Best dishes- Croute du Gouet – very cheesy, 2 fried eggs and very filling – Pella (Savoyard speciality), Diots, Plat du Jour is usually excellent. PG C

Princess This has changed hands. Last year the food was expensive and the service atrocious. There is a first floor picnic room but its not always open. PG C

Chez Ernestine . 04 50 54 41 99 On the ridge above the Croix de Christ bowl. Access by blue track from Mt Joux, or reds from top of Croix de Christ. Fantastic views. Limited but good menu. Very reasonable prices – probably best value in the area. PG C

Betoit Above the green run to Bettex., between the two drag lifts. Nice ambiance but disappointing food.

JAILLET

Auberge du Christomet 04 50 21 11 34 Good food and service. Easy for pedestrians. Top of hillock near chair lift. Not cheap but excellent food and fantastic views. Savoyard specialities extremely good. PG B

Face Au Mont Blanc 04 50 21 06 51 Stunning views across Megeve with Mont Blanc in background. Buffet style. Expensive PG A

La Gieltaz. There are three restaurants at the foot of La Gieltaz. Our guide took us to the one furthest away, behind the obvious one, so presume it's the best – or maybe he likes the waitress! Food was good, but service slow.

Auberge Bonjournal 04 50 21 11 34

This is on the ridge going to or coming back from La Gieltaz. It has fantastic views, and a wood fire for those cold days. The food is good and staff friendly. Nice ambience but only one loo. PG C

Chalet du Bachais 04 50 93 36 06

Just below the top of the Pertuis chair Good food reasonably priced and splendid views. PG C

Alpage de Porrez 04 50 47 12 15 On the Porrez run. More expensive than Chalet des Bachais and not as accessible. We have reports that the food is good PG C

Au Petit Cuchet 04 50 58 67 07 More expensive than previous 2 restaurants. We have not eaten there PG B

Les Balcons des Lydie 06 86 56 26 71 On blue Chevreuil run down from Christomet. Under new management and menu looks good. We have not eaten there. Fantastic views. PG C
